

ELECTRONIC OBJECTS & THEIR PEOPLE

“Great, you’re getting an iPhone; I’ll be another statistic of a guy losing his girlfriend to the iPhone.”

“The computer is like his other girlfriend. When he is on his computer, I could stand naked in the room and he wouldn’t care.”

“Come here boy. Where are you, boy?”... looking for his cell phone.

“I spend so much time with my computer it might as well be physically attached to me,”

“One in three of “Denverites” would sooner give up sex than phones.”

*Do you cuddle with your toaster and upgrade your roommates?
Our phones should get in touch.*
